WHY GO

Circumnavigate Iceland in a week to immerse yourself in its legendary waterfalls, stunning wildlife, and intriguing cuisine. Overnight in Seydisfjordur, travel to the center of the earth at Grundarfjordur, and hear the thundering roar of Godafoss - the "Waterfall of the Gods" near Akureyri.

VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Soak in Reykjavik's famous Blue Lagoon, a soothing 98-104 degrees year-round.
- Sample "Viking sushi," which is fermented shark, and the national dish of Iceland.
- Witness the rainbow-colored beauty of Godafoss, the "Waterfall of the Gods," outside Akureyri.
- Take a polar flight to Grimsey Island where you can stand with one foot in the Arctic Circle.
- Visit the island of Heimaey, the Pompeii of the North, covered in ash by a devastating 1973 eruption.
- Meet friendly Icelandic horses brought to the island by the Vikings in the 9th or 10th century A.D.
- Overnights in Seydisfjordur with its colorful historic houses imported from Norway by wealthy 20th century merchants.
- Sail past Surtsey Island, the youngest place on earth, created by an eruption in 1963.
